

ASSURED SHORTHOLD TENANCY AGREEMENT

for letting a residential dwelling

Important Notes for Tenants

- This tenancy agreement is a legal and binding contract and the Tenant is responsible for payment of the rent for the entire agreed term. The agreement may not be terminated early unless the agreement contains a break clause, or written permission is obtained from the Landlord.
- Where there is more than one tenant, all obligations, including those for rent and repairs can be enforced against all of the tenants jointly and against each individually. Where the tenancy is subject to deposit protection then joint tenants may have to nominate a lead tenant to act on their behalf with the Landlord or Tenancy Deposit Scheme provider or their alternative dispute resolution service provider.
- If you are unsure of your obligations under this agreement, then you are advised to take independent legal advice before signing.

General Notes

1. This tenancy agreement is for letting furnished or unfurnished residential accommodation on an assured shorthold tenancy within the provisions of the Housing Act 1988 as amended by Part III of the Housing Act 1996. As such, this is a legal document and should not be used without adequate knowledge of the law of landlord and tenant.
2. Prospective tenants should have an adequate opportunity to read and understand the tenancy agreement before signing in order for this agreement to be fully enforceable.
3. This agreement may be used for residential tenancies of three years or less. Agreements for tenancies of a longer duration should be drawn up by deed.
4. Section 11, Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 - these obligations require the Landlord to keep in repair the structure and exterior of the dwelling, and to keep in repair and proper working order the installations for the supply of water, gas and electricity and the installations in the Property for space heating and heating water.
5. Section 196 of the Law of Property Act 1925 provides that a notice shall be sufficiently served if it is sent by post in a registered letter (if the letter is not returned undelivered) addressed to the Tenant at the Property or the last known address of the Tenant or left addressed to the Tenant at the Property.
6. This agreement has been drawn up after consideration of the Unfair Contract Terms Guidance published by the Competition and Markets Authority.
7. If you accept a tenancy deposit under this tenancy, it must be protected by a tenancy deposit protection scheme and certain documents must be given to the tenant. Take advice if necessary.
8. Where the tenancy becomes a periodic tenancy at the end of the fixed term period the tenant is required to give at least 28 days' notice (or one month in the case of a monthly tenancy) in writing to end the tenancy. The tenant's notice must end on the first or last day of a period of the tenancy in accordance with the common law rules. The landlord is required to give at least two months' notice in accordance with the statutory rules prescribed by Section 21 of the Housing Act 1988 but the landlord's notice does not need to expire on the first or last day of a period of a tenancy.
9. ZDG: Zero Deposit Guarantee sold through Zero Deposit ("ZD"), a trading name of Global Property Ventures Limited, and provided by Great Lakes Insurance SE which the Tenant may, at the Tenant's option, purchase as a substitute for the Cash Deposit. The terms and conditions of the ZDG are set out in detail in the ZDG documentation provided to the Tenant and Landlord by ZD. For copies of the ZDG documentation, contact help@zerodeposit.com

8. The Landlord agrees with the Tenant that:

(8.1) The Landlord shall permit the Tenant to have quiet enjoyment of the Property without interruption by the Landlord or his Agent, however this does not preclude the Landlord from taking action through the courts should the Tenant fail to pay the Rent due or be in breach of the Tenancy Agreement

(8.2) In the event that the Property is rendered uninhabitable by fire or flood or any other risk which the Landlord has insured, other than where the damage has been caused by the act or omission of the Tenant, his family or his visitors then the parties will consider this Agreement as frustrated and terminated subject to the right of the Tenant to recover any rent paid in advance for the period after the termination

9. Forfeiture Provision. The Landlord may apply to the court to end this tenancy and repossess the Property if:

- (a) the Tenant does not pay the Rent (or any part of it) within 14 days of the date on which it is due; or
- (b) the Tenant does not comply with the obligations set out in this Agreement; or
- (c) the Landlord was induced to grant the tenancy by a false statement; or
- (d) any of the Grounds specified in Schedule 2 of the Housing Act 1988 (as amended) apply to this tenancy.

This termination clause operates subject to the proviso that the Landlord must obtain a court order before repossessing the Property

IMPORTANT. Only the Court can order the Tenant to give up possession of the Property

10. The Landlord agrees to carry out any repairing obligations as required by section 11 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 (see note 4)

11. In this Agreement, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions shall have the following meanings:

"The Landlord" includes the persons who during the period of the tenancy have a legal interest in the Property

"The Tenant" includes those who might inherit the tenancy. Whenever there is more than one Tenant all covenants and obligations can be enforced against all of the Tenants jointly and against each individually. This means that any one of the members of a joint tenancy can be held responsible for the full rent and other obligations under the Agreement if the other members do not fulfil their obligations

"The Agent" refers to the person appointed by the Landlord to manage the property and collect Rent, or anyone who subsequently takes over these rights and responsibilities

12. The parties agree:

(12.1) Notice is hereby given that possession might be recovered under Ground 1, Schedule 2 of the Housing Act 1988 if applicable. That is, that the Landlord used to live in the Property as his or her main home; or intends to occupy the Property as his or her only or main home

(12.2) The tenancy may be brought to an end if the mortgagee requires possession on default of the borrower under Ground 2, Schedule 2 of the Housing Act 1988

(12.3) Before the Landlord can end this tenancy, he shall serve any notice(s) on the Tenant in accordance with the provisions of the Housing Acts. Such notice(s) shall be sufficiently served if served at the last known address of the Tenant in accordance with section 196 of the Law of Property Act 1925 - see note 5 (subject to the clause below)

(12.4) That notices and other documents given in connection with this tenancy may be served by email on the Tenant at the email address(es) supplied above. The notice or document will be regarded as received by the Tenant at the start of the next business day after it was first sent.

(12.5) Whilst the Landlord or his Agent shall make every effort to keep the Tenant's personal details safe and secure, it may be necessary to share such information with trusted third parties such as the Home Office, utility companies, maintenance contractors, credit and referencing agencies and debt collection companies etc. The Landlord or his Agent will not divulge personal contact details to any other third party organisation for marketing purposes without prior approval unless this is necessary to comply with a statutory obligation
